JOHN HANCOCK FREEDOM 529 OFFERED BY EDUCATION TRUST OF ALASKA

Inside John Hancock Freedom 529 Portfolios

Bringing our multimanager expertise to every education savings portfolio

A unique partnership

Following the overall investment guidelines established by the Education Trust of Alaska, Manulife John Hancock Investments and T. Rowe Price jointly research and select asset managers for the plan's investment options, then we continually monitor those managers to help keep your investments on track.

This unique partnership offers a level of investment oversight that's hard to match with other 529 plans.

A better way to invest

In partnership with T. Rowe Price, we search the world to find proven portfolio management teams with specialized expertise for every fund we offer, then we apply vigorous investment oversight to ensure they continue to meet our uncompromising standards.

Our team of over 200 professionals who specialize in manager research and oversight vets new strategies and holds oversight meetings with managers annually.

Deeper diversification

A key benefit of our asset allocation approach comes from combining multiple investment styles and multiple managers, resulting in a deeper level of diversification backed by the oversight of two leading investment organizations.

Oversight

Monitoring each portfolio team for the repeatability of its investment process and management of risk

Various asset classes

Both within and beyond traditional equity and fixed income

Broad range of styles

Continual exposure to a variety of strategies, as different characteristics go in and out of favor

Multiple managers

A diversity of approaches from some of the world's best managers

Our 529 portfolios bring together some of the best investment teams from around the world

1 Class F is only available to investors who use the services of a registered investment professional or fee-based professional who charges a flat or percentage fee for their services or who are investing through financial intermediaries that have entered into an agreement with John Hancock Distributors LLC to offer Class F units on a brokerage platform that charges commissions and fees directly to clients outside of the plan. Class F units may not be available at all firms.

Investing involves risks, including the potential loss of principal. The stock prices of midsize and small companies can change more frequently and dramatically than those of large companies. Growth stocks may be more susceptible to earnings disappointments, and value stocks may decline in price. Large company stocks could fall out of favor, and foreign investing, especially in emerging markets, has additional risks, such as currency and market volatility and political and social instability. Fixed-income investments are subject to interest-rate and credit risk; their value will normally decline as interest rates rise or if an issuer is unable to make principal or interest payments. Investments in higher-yielding, lower-rated securities include a higher risk of default. This material is not intended to be, nor shall it be interpreted or construed as, a recommendation or providing advice, impartial or otherwise. John Hancock Investment Management and its representatives and affiliates may receive compensation derived from the sale of and/or from any investment made in its products and services.

2 Year-to-date returns are cumulative. All other performance is an average annual total return except for portfolios that are less than one year old, in which case the inception-to-date returns are cumulative. "With sales charge" figures reflect the maximum sales charge, which is 4.0%, except for Enrollment and Fixed Income Portfolios, which is 3.0%. Note: Performance for periods prior to 11/14/19 reflects the prior maximum sales charge and expenses of the portfolios. Please see the Plan Disclosure Document for more details. 3 Return assumes an inception date of 6/3/02.

The performance data presented represents past performance. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results, and current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Investment returns in John Hancock Freedom 529 portfolios and the value of an investor's units will fluctuate and may be worth more or less than the original cost when redeemed. Performance current to the most recent month end is available at jhinvestments.com/529 or by calling 866-222-7498.

If your state or your designated beneficiary's state offers a 529 plan, you may want to consider what, if any, potential state income-tax or other state benefits it offers, such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protection from creditors, before investing. State tax or other benefits should be one of many factors to be considered prior to making an investment decision. Please consult with your financial, tax, or other professional about how these state benefits, if any, may apply to your specific circumstances. You may also contact your state 529 plan or any other 529 education savings plan to learn more about their features. Please contact your financial professional or call 866-222-7498 to obtain a Plan Disclosure Document or prospectus for any of the underlying funds. The Plan Disclosure Document contains complete details on investment objectives, risks, fees, charges, and expenses, as well as more information about municipal fund securities and the underlying investment companies that should be considered before investing. Please read the Plan Disclosure Document carefully prior to investing.
