Payment of funds is authorized by the signature(s) appearing on the reverse side.

Checks will require only one signature unless otherwise indicated. Each signator guarantees the genuineness of the other's signature. Checks may not be for less than $100 or greater than $100,000 or such other minimum or maximum amounts as may be established by John Hancock, on prior written notice to its shareholders.

The bank is appointed agent by the person(s) signing this card (the shareholder(s)). The bank is authorized and directed to present checks drawn on this checking account to the account, to the fund, or its redemption agent as requests to redeem shares of the account registered in the same name of the shareholder(s) in the amounts of these checks; and to deposit the proceeds of such redemptions in this checking account. The bank shall be liable only for its own negligence.

Shareholder(s) authorize the fund or its redemption agent to honor redemption requests presented by the bank. The fund and its redemption agent will not be liable for any loss, expense, or cost arising out of check redemptions. Shares of the account that were purchased by check within 10 calendar days will not be redeemed. The bank has the right to not honor checks in amounts exceeding the value of the shareholder(s) account at the time the check is presented for payment. The bank reserves the right to change, modify, or terminate this checking account at any time on notification mailed to the address of record of the shareholder(s).
