Management's Discussion of Fund Performance

SUMMARY OF RESULTS

Emerging Markets Debt Fund (Class C/JMKCX) returned 13.19% (excluding sales charges) for the year ended August 31, 2024. The most significant factor affecting fund performance during the period was a meaningful rally in emerging markets bonds, resulting primarily from declining inflation and interest rate cuts by central banks in many emerging market countries.

TOP PERFORMANCE CONTRIBUTORS

Argentinian government bonds | Denominated in U.S. dollars, these securities benefited from optimism surrounding lower inflation and potential fiscal reforms by the Argentinian government.

Egyptian government bonds | Government bonds in Egypt benefited from expectations that foreign loans and investment will help shore up the country's struggling economy.

Petroleos Mexicanos (Pemex) | Bonds issued by the Mexican state-run petroleum company rallied on support from the newly elected president's administration.

TOP PERFORMANCE DETRACTORS

Brazilian government bonds | Local-currency bonds in Brazil declined due to a significant depreciation in the Brazilian real versus the U.S. dollar.

WOM SA | Bonds issued by the Chilean telecommunication services company fell amid a challenging competitive landscape and difficulty refinancing an upcoming bond maturity.
