Management’s Discussion of Fund Performance

SUMMARY OF RESULTS

Multimanager 2065 Lifetime Portfolio (Class R5/JABDX) returned 13.11% for the year ended August 31, 2025. The world financial markets produced robust total returns in the 12-month period that ended on August 31, 2025. Investor sentiment was well supported by the combination of positive global growth, strong corporate earnings, and accommodative central bank policies. Equities logged double-digit gains, albeit with a stretch of volatility in March-April 2025 caused by concerns about the United States’ implementation of tariffs. Bonds also performed well, with the strongest returns coming from higher-yielding market segments.

TOP PERFORMANCE CONTRIBUTORS

The equity allocation contributed the most to absolute performance | With the exception of the dedicated sector portfolio, all major equity categories—including large-, mid-, and small-cap U.S. stocks, international equities, and defensive equities—delivered positive absolute returns.

Certain fixed-income positions | High yield bonds, emerging markets debt, and short-term bonds all registered gains.

TOP PERFORMANCE DETRACTORS

Overall fixed-income allocation | The fund’s holdings in bonds posted a net loss due to negative returns for its position in U.S. Treasury STRIPS (Separate Trading of Registered Interest and Principal of Securities).

The absolute return portfolio | This portion of the fund, which is intended to provide an alternative source of return with lower sensitivity to the performance of the broader financial markets, posted a loss.

John Hancock 2065 Lifetime Index	13.96%	12.17%

Performance figures assume all distributions have been reinvested and reflect the beneficial effect of any expense reductions. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Due to market volatility and other factors, the fund's current performance may be higher or lower than the performance shown and can be found at jhinvestments.com/investments or by calling 800-225-5291. The graph and table do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or redemption of fund shares. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.
